

SOLID COCKER ASSOCIATION    OPEN SHOW MAY 2014

SPECIAL AWARDS – A quality entry & a most enjoyable day at this club with a happy atmosphere, where I was really looked after by a hard working friendly committee. P (3) 1 Hillier's Coedcernyw Charisma, pretty black bitch with feminine head & kind eye, short compact body, balanced with good return of forearm & correct rear angulation, moved happily & with purpose, immaculate presentation. Has a great future I am sure & certainly lives up to her name; 2 Marris-Bray's Helenwood Recognition, handsome black lad with masculine head, good reach of neck into sloping shoulder with correct layback, strong hindquarters with good width to stifle, moved soundly keeping level topline; 3 Corcoran's Troverothway Hampton Rose. PG (5,1a) 1 Gains' Molkara Escala, feminine black bitch with chiselled head & appealing eye, balanced throughout with good bone & correct angulation, superb coat & condition. Moved with drive & attitude as though she owned the ring; 2 Pheasant's Molkara Druids Quest at Charmerl, black boy full of character & charm, masculine head with gentle expression, strong sloping shoulders, well boned legs & tight feet, good spring of rib with nice rear angulation, muscled hindquarters in hard condition & immaculate presentation; 3 Corcoran's Sheigra Twinkling Star at Troverothway. O (4,1) 1 Costello's Judika Arizona, handsome b/t boy with attractive markings. Short coupled with good bone & substance, deep forechest, good angulation at rear with short hocks that gave strength to his driving action behind. Moved soundly fore & aft. Clean coat in excellent condition & well handled; 2 Marris-Bray's Weirdene Wake Up at Helenwood, black boy of good proportions with nicely shaped head & gentle expression, good earset, clean neck into sloping shoulders, compact body with well sprung ribs & good bend of stifle. Plenty of bone, moved well but needs bigger ring to show his true potential; 3 Share-Jones' The Sultan.
